

Core Team Requirements and Application

Requirements

Team members must be college age or older

Team members should possess the following qualities:

- A personal commitment to Jesus Christ
- A love for youth
- A love for the Catholic Church
- Regular participation in the sacraments, particularly Sunday Mass
- A personal prayer life
- Regular reading of Scripture
- An openness to using the gifts of the Holy Spirit

Team members must be fully compliant with the Archdiocesan Child Protection Policy (Virtus Training)

Team members must attend training and planning meetings

Those interested in being a CORE Team member must interview with the Youth Coordinator.

After the interview, the decision will be made whether the applicant is being called to serve with the Immaculate Conception Youth Ministry CORE Team. Team members must then successfully complete CORE Team and Virtus training.

NOTE: Team members must continue to possess the above mentioned qualities throughout the duration of their commitment. Team members are free at any time to unconditionally terminate their relationship as a CORE Team member. At the same time Immaculate Conception Youth Ministry retains the option to ask you to step out of this ministry if it becomes clear that you are no longer being called to this specific ministry, or if mitigating circumstances make it unwise for you to continue this ministry.
